Discussion Questions:

1. What did you notice as you did your homework this past week?
2. Thinking about the saying, "It takes two to tango," do you usually start the dance, finish it or keep it going?
3. What kind of defense mechanisms have you built to keep you from being hurt?
4. Before today, how did you define sin? If sin is stealing God's glory, how have you stolen His glory?
5. The speaker talked about how pride manifests itself in her. How does pride manifest itself in you?
6. Think about the story of the woman who owed her boss a million dollars. If you could put a monetary value on how much your offender owes you, how much would that be? If you could put a monetary value on how much you owe God, how much would that be? How do the two amounts compare?
7. Your group leader is going to give you a piece of paper. On this paper, write down the ways you have sinned against God and others. If you feel comfortable, share some or all of this list with the group. Ask God to forgive you. Then put the paper in the bowl of water provided by the group leader.

Homework Activity: Make a new list. This list is about your offenses. How have you sinned against your offenders? How have you sinned against God?
